

The Audubon Society of the Everglades
& Friends of the Loxahatchee Refuge present the

11th Annual
Everglades Day
Saturday • February 6

held at the
Arthur R. Marshall Loxahatchee
National Wildlife Refuge
U.S. 441/State Road 7
2 miles south of Boynton Beach Blvd.
Parking at Monte's Packaging
1/2 mile south of Refuge entrance.
Free shuttle to/around the Refuge.

Arts in the Everglades

~ Special Guest Speaker ~

Clyde Butcher

Photographer of the Everglades

And presentations by

Kenn Kaufman

Birding Guide Author

Guests include:

• Wood Sculptor, Paul Cummings • Musicians, Grant Livingston & Roadside Revue
Photographers, Claudine Laabs & John Lopinot • Hitichi Dancers • and much more

The day includes ~

Children's Mural / Wildlife Presentations / Painters / Nature Walks / Authors / Musicians / Sculptors /
Interactive Programs / Artist Demonstrations / Sketching Wildlife / Photography Instruction /
Audubon Art Program / Strazzulla Marsh & LILA Tours / Exhibits / Canoeing / Food /
The Best Exhibitors from Environmental Organizations, Clubs, Wildlife Centers, National Parks, Nature Centers

Celebrate the Everglades at this all-day FREE family festival

In partnership with the Friends of the Loxahatchee NWR, the Audubon Society of the Everglades, U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service, The Palm Beach Post, Loxahatchee Everglades Tours, Palm Beach County Cultural Council & South Florida Water Management District

For more information contact the Loxahatchee National Wildlife Refuge at 561-734-8303